

THE 2026 CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

UPV Komsai.Org

University of the Philippines

Visayas Miagao, Iloilo City

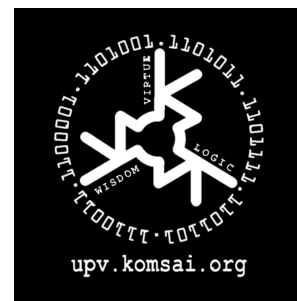

PREAMBLE

We, the members of UPV Komsai.Org aim to contribute to the growth and development of the University of the Philippines Visayas community and to promote unity and cooperation among the members of the said community, do hereby enact this constitution.

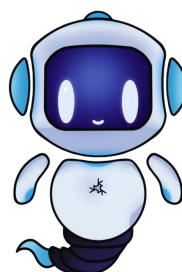

Article 1 - Name and Official Branding of the Organization

Sec. 1. This organization shall be known as UPV Komsai.Org, Komsai.Org, and Komsai.

Sec. 2. The organization shall use the images below and its variations as the logo of the organization.

Sec 3. The organization's official mascot shall be named "Semicolon," represented by the image below and its variations.

Sec. 4. Any form of usage of the organization's name, logo and mascot outside the organization, shall be subject to the executive committee's approval.

Sec. 5. Usage of the organization's identifiers for any Income Generating Project (IGP) will require compensation fees set by the organization.

Sec. 6. The official color of the organization shall be cyan and purple.

Article II - Declaration of Principles and Objectives

Sec. 1. The members of the organization shall adhere to the University of the Philippines - Visayas' Mission and Vision, as well as B.S. in Computer Science's Program Learning Outcomes.

Sec. 2. The organization shall have the following objectives:

- a. To promote unity, cooperation, and camaraderie among the members of the organization.
- b. To promote personal and intellectual growth of the members by reciprocating knowledge and skills.
- c. To provide a venue for the dissemination of Computer Science and Information Technology, its trends and advancements, in order to increase awareness and interaction within the community.
- d. To provide a liaison among the students, graduates and professional members of the organization.

Article III - Functions of the Organization

Sec. 1. The UPV Komsai.Org is to establish itself as a university-wide and academic organization.

Sec. 2. Formulate policies for the realization of the goals and objectives of the organization in accordance with this Constitution.

Sec. 3. Conduct discussions and workshops designed to develop knowledge and skills of the members in the area of Computer Science and Information Technology.

Sec. 4. Initiate and implement projects that will enhance awareness in Computer Science and Information Technology and promote interaction within the organization and the outside community.

Sec. 5. Hold gatherings that aim to foster unity and camaraderie among the members.

Sec. 6. Facilitate communications with the Computer Science and Information Technology professionals and support groups.

Article IV - Organizational Structure

Sec. 1. There shall be a General Assembly composed of regular members of the organization. It shall determine the policies and decisions of the organization.

Sec. 2. There shall be a body known as the Executive Committee to be composed of the President, the two (2) Vice-Presidents, one for the internal and the other for external affairs, the Secretary, the Treasurer, the Auditor, the Business Manager, one (1) assistant for each of the respective positions: Secretary, Treasurer, Auditor, and Business Manager respectively, the members of the Publications Committee, Batch Representatives, and the Heads of the Seven (7) committees.

Sec. 3. There shall be a minimum of two (2) and a maximum of four (4) Batch Representatives.

Sec. 4. The Executive Committee or the General Assembly of the organization can set additional positions for the Executive Committee if deemed necessary and duly approved by the General Assembly.

Sec. 5. The organization shall have seven (7) committees, namely Documentation, Education and Research, Finance, Logistics, Website, Public Relations, and Publications. These committees shall be open to non-officers with at least one (1) representative member per batch.

Article V - Membership

Sec. 1. Members of the said organization would be students who have officially enrolled in at least 3.0 units of Computer Science courses or equivalent courses that believe in the aforementioned principles and objectives of the organization.

Students currently enrolled in the Bachelor of Science in Computer Science of the University of the Philippines Visayas, College of Arts and Sciences, are automatically members of the said organization, provided that their membership was not terminated for serious offenses.

Sec. 2. Each member should pay a membership fee of one-hundred (100) pesos per semester. The membership fee for a semester will be waived if that semester is declared to be under a remote learning setup. Down payments are also accepted, with fifty (50) pesos being paid in the first half of the semester, and the other fifty (50) pesos being paid in the second half of the semester.

Sec. 3. The following membership classifications are herein adopted:

- a. REGULAR MEMBERS shall be those who are bonafide students of the University of the Philippines Visayas, College of Arts and Sciences enrolled in B.S. Computer Science or have officially enrolled in at least 3.0 units of Computer Science courses.
 1. ACTIVE MEMBERS shall be regular members who participate in the events of the organization.
 2. INACTIVE MEMBERS shall be regular members who have not been participating in the events of the organization for at least one (1) semester or have not paid the membership fee for at least two (2) semesters.
- b. ALUMNI MEMBERS shall be those who, after being regular members, had graduated from an undergraduate course and/or subsequently left the university.
- c. HONORARY MEMBERS shall be those who have rendered meritorious and significant services to the organization, shiftees from B.S. Computer Science who still wants to be a member of the organization.

Sec. 4. Failure to renew their membership would automatically mean the termination of membership.

Sec. 5. Membership may be terminated by voluntary resignation.

Sec. 6. Terminated members may apply again, provided they follow Section 3 of Article V and are not previously subject to Section 5 of Article XI.

Article VI - Rights, Privileges and Duties of Members

Sec. 1. The members shall have the following rights and privileges:

- a. To participate in all activities of the said organization;
- b. To be able to represent UPV Komsai.Org in events held outside of the organization;
- c. To vote, and if qualified for a position, be voted upon;

- d. To inform proper authorities with regard to vital issues affecting the organization;
- e. To have access to all records of the organization except those considered confidential by the Executive Committee those that will violate the existing Data Privacy Policy of the UP System, and the Data Privacy Act of 2012;
- f. To avail such rights and privileges as may be prescribed by this Constitution and the internal Rules and Regulations; and
- g. Be assigned to a 'byte', an experienced member who has been a member of the organization for at least two semesters, for the first semester until the end of their regular membership and later on, will adopt a 'bit', a new member of the organization, starting the third semester of their residency.

Sec. 2. The members shall have the following duties and obligations

- a. To abide by and uphold the Constitution and other policies imposed by the organization;
- b. To participate actively in all activities and programs of the organization;
- c. To attend meetings and participate in discussions and decision-making when called upon by the President of the organization;
- d. To pay their financial obligations;
- e. To respect all decisions made by the organization;
- f. To conduct oneself befitting a member of the organization; and
- g. To be responsible in helping fellow members thus contributing to the betterment of the organization.

Sec. 3. All regular members are automatically deemed eligible and are immediately participants of the organization's Peer Facilitation System called the Bit-Byte System unless such member requests their withdrawal of participation to be approved by the Vice President for Internal Affairs.

Sec. 4. Honorary Members can also be participants of the organization's Peer Facilitation System upon their request to be deemed eligible and approved by the Vice President for Internal Affairs.

Sec. 5. Upon having an instance wherein a member has left the organization's Peer Facilitation System, their bit(s) will be assigned to another member of the organization.

Article VII - Qualifications of Officer

Sec. 1. The Executive Committee Officers must have the following qualifications:

- a. Must be a regular member for the duration of their term.
- b. Must have a good academic standing and good moral character as defined by not having a record with the Student Disciplinary Tribunal (SDT) and not having undergone any disciplinary measures from the organization.
- c. Section 1a of the Article VII can be superseded by existing policies of the UP System including those of Office of Student Affairs and Student Organizations and Activities in instance of remote learning and/or waiving of academic standing.

Article VIII - Functions and Powers of Executive Committee Officers

Sec. 1. The President (1):

- a. Shall set and preside over the General Assembly and Executive Committee's meetings, explain and decide all questions of order, be informed and sign all resolutions, communications and papers of the organization;
- b. Shall execute all policies of the organization;
- c. Shall call and preside over all special meetings.
- d. Shall create special committees needed in carrying out the purposes of the organization and shall appoint the members:
- e. Shall approve all disbursements and appropriations after consultation with the concerned officers;
- f. Shall act as the official representative of the organization in all external activities together with the Vice President for External Affairs or may appoint an officer on his behalf;
- g. Shall have the power to give specific instructions to all committees;
- h. Shall have the authority to break the tie; and
- i. Shall perform added duties and responsibilities as may be prescribed of them by the By-laws, General Assembly, and the Executive Committee.

Sec 2. The Vice President (2).

Sec 2a. The Vice President for Internal Affairs (1):

- a. Shall assist the President in their administrative functions;
- b. Shall take over the office of the President as Officer-in-Charge in the absence of the President;
- c. Shall plan activities that will promote camaraderie among members;
- d. Shall perform added duties and responsibilities as may be prescribed of them by the By-laws, General Assembly, and the Executive Committee
- e. Shall be the one to oversee the Bit-Byte System or the Peer Facilitation System of the organization.
- f. Shall be entitled to one vote during deliberations.
- g. Shall automatically assume the role of head of the Website Committee.

Sec 2b. The Vice President for External Affairs (1):

- a. Shall assist the President in their administrative functions;
- b. Shall act as the official representative of the organization in all external activities or may appoint an officer on his behalf;
- c. Shall act as the point person in communicating with the non-regular members for information dissemination;
- d. Shall perform added duties and responsibilities as may be prescribed of them by the By-laws General Assembly, and the Executive Committee; and
- e. Shall be entitled to one vote during deliberations.
- f. Shall automatically assume the role of head of the Public Relations Committee.

Sec. 3. The Secretary (2):

- a. Shall keep full record of the minutes of the meetings, take the roll call and mark absences at the meetings, read the minutes of the previous meeting and read important correspondences and the proceedings of the

- meetings;
- b. Shall record and take charge of all the documents of the organization;
- c. Shall notify the member of the schedule of meetings; and
- d. Shall perform added duties and responsibilities as may be prescribed of them by the By-laws, General Assembly, and the Executive Committee; and
- e. Shall securely keep and maintain soft copies of the organization's important documents in an online drive that can be easily accessed by the officers;
- f. Shall maintain an updated archive of the organization's and its members' significant achievements and milestones;
- g. Shall securely archive all financial and non-financial reports in collaboration with the Treasurer, Auditor, and other concerned officers;
- h. Shall ensure the safekeeping of the organization's accomplishment reports in coordination with the President; and
- i. Shall be responsible for the overall maintenance and security of all official documents of the organization, ensuring their proper organization and accessibility for future reference.
- j. Shall be entitled to one vote during deliberations.
- k. Shall automatically assume the role of head of the Documentations Committee.

Sec. 4. The Treasurer (2):

- a. Shall receive, record and keep the financial assets of the organization;
- b. Shall collect all financial dues from members;
- c. Shall disburse funds as authorized by the President and/or the General Assembly;
- d. Shall prepare financial statements and reports from time to time as may be required;
- e. Shall automatically be the head of the Finance Committee;
- f. Shall be the property custodian of the organization;
- g. Shall perform added duties and responsibilities as may be prescribed of them by the By-laws. General Assembly, and the Executive Committee; and
- h. Shall be entitled to one vote during deliberations.
- i. Shall automatically assume the role of head of the Finance Committee.

Sec. 5. The Auditor (2):

- a. Shall audit all finances and assets of the organization;
- b. Shall perform added duties and responsibilities as may be prescribed of them by the By-Laws, General Assembly, and the Executive Committee; and
- c. Shall be entitled to one vote during deliberations.
- d. Shall automatically be a member of the Finance Committee.

Sec. 6. The Business Manager (2):

- a. Shall take charge in all fundraising activities of the organization;
- b. Shall be responsible for all marketing plans of the organization;
- c. Shall handle business transactions of the organization as approved by the Executive Committee and/or the General Assembly;
- d. Shall perform added duties and responsibilities as may be prescribed of them by the By-laws, General Assembly, and the Executive Committee; and

- e. Shall be entitled to one vote during deliberations.
- f. Shall automatically assume the role of head of the Logistics Committee.

Sec. 7. The Public Information Officers (at least 5):

- a. Shall make press releases concerning the organization as directed by the President and/or the Executive Committee; and
- b. Shall automatically be part of the Website Committee and the Publications Committee; and
- c. Shall perform added duties and responsibilities as may be prescribed of them by the By-laws; General Assembly, and the Executive Committee; and
- d. Shall be entitled to one vote during deliberations.
- e. Shall automatically assume the role of head of the Publications Committee.

Sec. 8. The Batch Representative (minimum of two (2), maximum of four (4)):

- a. Shall act as the representative of their batch regarding their concerns in the organization; and
- b. Should help the Treasurer collect fees from the members of the organization; and
- c. Should help in disseminating information about meetings and/or assemblies in the organization; and
- d. Inform and encourage their batchmates to participate in activities; and
- e. Shall be entitled to one vote during deliberations.

Sec. 9. The Committee Heads (at least 7):

- a. Shall act as the heads of their respective committees; and
- b. Shall be part of the Executive Committee on the case that a committee head does not have an existing role within the organization; and
- c. Shall be assigned into power by the President with the approval of the Executive Committee; and
- d. Shall be entitled to one vote during deliberations.

Article IX - Advisers and Co-Advisers

Sec. 1. The Executive Committee or the General Assembly will decide on how many Advisers and Co-Advisers are necessary for the specific term.

Sec. 2. The adviser shall be consulted by the organization in any issue they may deem necessary to recommend measures that may be taken by the organization.

Sec. 3. The tenure of office of the adviser shall be the same as the tenure of office of the Executive Committee.

Sec. 4. The co-adviser will be assisting the adviser in decision-making for the organization.

Article X - Functions and Powers of Committees

Sec 1. The Documentation Committee:

- a. Shall be headed by the Secretaries of the organization;

- b. Shall oversee the documentation of all official organizational events through photographs and video recordings, ensuring the preservation of high-quality visual records for archival and promotional use;
- c. Shall coordinate the registration and/or the attendance of the members during the events of the organization;

Sec 2. The Finance Committee:

- a. Shall be headed by the Treasurers of the organization;
- b. Shall receive, record, and keep the financial records of the organization;
- c. Shall collect all financial dues from the members;
- d. Shall disburse the funds as authorized by the President and/or the General Assembly;
- e. Shall prepare financial statements and reports as may be required; and
- f. Shall be the property custodians of the organization.

Sec 3. The Logistics Committee:

- a. Shall be headed by the Business Managers of the organization;
- b. Shall oversee the planning and coordination of all organizational events and activities;
- c. Shall manage the reservation and setup of venues, ensuring that all necessary equipment is available and functional;
- d. Shall handle the inventory, maintenance, and safekeeping of the organization's physical assets and resources;
- e. Shall collaborate with other committees to ensure smooth logistical operations for events and projects;
- f. Shall recruit and manage volunteers to assist in logistical tasks during events;
- g. Shall procure necessary supplies and manage external vendor relations as needed; and
- h. Shall be in charge of organizing and managing the logistics of income-generating projects (IGPs) for the organization.

Sec 4. The Website Committee:

- a. Shall be headed by the Vice President for Internal Affairs;
- b. Shall develop and maintain a strategic plan for the website that aligns with the organization's mission and goals;
- c. Shall oversee the creation, review, and updating of website content to ensure it is accurate, relevant, and engaging;
- d. Shall collaborate on website design, including layout, navigation, and visual elements to ensure a user-friendly experience; and
- e. Shall propose and implement improvements to keep the website current and effective.

Sec 5. The Education and Research Committee:

- a. Shall be headed by a member of the committee appointed by the committee members subject to the approval of the Executive Committee;
- b. Shall be in charge of the overall educational development of the members of the organization and the formulation of the campaigns that the organization will soldier throughout the year;
- c. Shall constantly seek and collaborate with members in joining educational and training opportunities such as seminars, competitions, conferences, immersions, workshops, internships, etc.;
- d. Shall promote and support fundamental research for the continuing improvement of the research capability of an individual or group of members of the organization;

- e. Shall provide advice, and create various forums and mini-discussion groups regarding problems and issues with Computer Science and Information Technology; and
- f. Shall constantly conduct research, primers, and outputs regarding issues on Information and Communication Technology.

Sec 6. The Public Relations Committee:

- a. Shall be headed by the Vice President for External Affairs;
- b. Shall act as the face of the organization in all public-related matters.
- c. Shall seek partnerships and collaborations with external organizations, sponsors, and other institutions that align with the objectives stated in Article 2 Section 2; and
- d. Shall spearhead the promotion and marketing of all events organized by the organization which include creating and distributing promotional materials, and managing event partnerships.

Sec 7. The Publications Committee:

Sec 7a. The Publications Committee will be divided into three main sections:

Creatives, Editors, and Social Media Managers with the functions stated in Sec 7b, 7c, and 7d.

Sec 7b. Creatives:

- a. Shall design and produce all promotional materials, and other visual representations including but not limited to visual presentations, signages, banners, photo borders, logo designs, cover art, brochures, flyers, templates, merchandise, etc.;
- b. Shall define the organization's visual identity by establishing and maintaining a cohesive visual style and consistency through the visual materials;
- c. Shall develop creative concepts for the publication materials that reflect the organization's brand and identity;
- d. Shall review and approve versions of visual materials to ensure the quality and branding standards; and
- e. Shall ensure the materials used for the publications in collaboration with the Documentation Committee.

Seb 7c. Editors:

- a. Shall produce and edit the visual outputs which include photos and videos;
- b. Shall ensure that all photo and video materials meet high technical and aesthetic standards, such as resolution, color balance, and overall presentation;
- c. Shall review the photos and videos to align the organization's intended message and brand identity;
- d. Shall oversee cutting scenes, light adjusting and color grading, special effects, audio synchronization, and video assembly; and
- e. Shall manage cropping, color correction, retouching, and enhancing photos.

Sec 7d. Social Media Managers:

- a. Shall manage the organization's presence across its social media accounts;
- b. Shall develop social media strategies that increase the organization's awareness and engagement;
- c. Shall manage the publishing or reposting of posts, campaigns, and partner events across social media platforms;
- d. Shall be responsible for composing captions for photographs and other media, ensuring that key moments and significant event details are effectively captured and summarized for publication purposes;

- e. Shall monitor the organization's social media channels such as responding to comments, messages, and mentions to foster a positive community; and
- f. Shall address and manage any potential PR issues on social media promptly and professionally.

Article XI - Election and Tenure of Office

Sec. 1. The regular election of Executive Committee Officers shall be held at the General Assembly Meeting of the second semester.

- a. In the case of remote learning or off-campus learning, elections shall be held online for a duration of 3 days, a week after the General Assembly Meeting.
- b. The nomination process shall start on the day of the General Assembly Meeting of the second semester and will end a day before the online elections.

Sec. 2. All elected officers shall have tenure of one (1) academic year.

Sec. 3. The set of duly elected officers shall assume office during the first day of regular classes for the academic year.

Sec. 4. All belongings (finance, documents, materials, and others) of the organization shall be turned over to the succeeding Executive Committee before the start of the next academic year.

Article XII - Suspension and Loss of Membership

Sec. 1. Suspension is the temporary loss of membership. Only regular members except those members elected into office may be suspended.

Sec. 2. The following shall be ground for suspension:

- a. Abuse of rights and privileges; or
- b. Willful disruptions of orderly proceedings of deliberative assemblies duly convened by the organization; or
- c. Unreasonable neglect of duty; or
- d. Commission of acts detrimental to the interest, integrity and well-being of the organization.

Sec. 3. Suspension should be at least one (1) week but should not exceed four (4) weeks in duration.

Sec. 4. Termination is permanent loss of membership. All kinds of membership may be subjected to termination.

Sec. 5. The following shall be ground for termination:

- a. Voluntary resignation; or
- b. Gross violation of this constitution; or
- c. Grave misconduct affecting the integrity and reputation of the organization.

Article XIII - Impeachment and Resignation

Sec. 1. Impeachment is relieving an officer of their duties due to negligence or violation of trust in their office. Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than removal from office and permanent disqualification to hold any elective office of honor, and punishment according to this constitution.

Sec. 2. Any elected individual may be removed from office if and when proven guilty of gross violation of any provisions of this constitution, inexcusable negligence of duty, grave abuse of authority, gross incompetence, gross inefficiency, or other questionable conduct or misdemeanor.

Sec. 3. Impeachment proceedings may be initiated through a written petition by the majority of 50% of the General Assembly plus one.

Sec. 4. Resignation is the voluntary act of an officer formally relinquishing their position within the organization.

Sec. 5. Any elected official may retire or withdraw from their position if and when a letter of resignation is to be addressed to the Executive Committee and Advisors. Resignation is then subject for approval.

Article XIV - Succession and Filling-up of Vacancies

Sec. 1. In case the President voluntarily resigns, dies, is permanently incapacitated, is removed from office, or has been absent without leave for more than one (1) month, the Vice President for Internal Affairs shall automatically take over the said office.

Sec. 2. In case of vacancies of the position for Vice President for Internal Affairs, Vice President for External Affairs, Secretary, Treasurer, Auditor, Business Manager, Public Information Officers member, and the Batch Representatives, the President subject to the concurrence with Article VII together with the remaining Executive Committee shall elect someone for the position.

Article XV - Meetings and Quorum

Sec. 1. For the purpose of electing a new set of officers, the Incumbent officers through the President shall convene all the regular members at the end of the second semester: the date, time, and place or modality shall be decided upon by the officers.

Sec. 2. After the assumption of office, the officers shall meet regularly at the time and place determined by the officers in order to take up matters pertinent to the realization of the objectives of the organization.

Sec. 3. A special meeting may be called by the President, a request by three-fourths of the Executive Committee or upon written request by the majority of 50% of the General Assembly plus one.

Sec. 4. There shall be a General Assembly meeting at least once every semester.

Sec. 5. The quorum for all meetings, except those of the Executive Committee where deliberations are needed, shall be a majority of 50% plus one.

Sec. 6. The quorum for all meetings of the Executive Committee shall be a majority of 50% plus one of the total number of the Executive Committee Officers.

Article XVI - Amendments

Sec. 1. The executive committee or a group of 10 members - regular, alumni, and/or honorary - may propose amendments to this constitution in written form. In the case of online learning, an email shall be sent to the official email address or online social media accounts of the organization.

Sec. 2. A special meeting of the General Assembly shall be called to discuss the said proposed amendment/s.

Sec. 3. Ratification of amendments to this constitution shall require a majority vote of 50% plus one of the present members of the General Assembly.

Article XVII - Effectivity

Sec.1. This constitution shall take effect immediately upon ratification by a vote of 50% plus one of the present members of the General Assembly.

Approved this 3rd day of September 2025 at the University of the Philippines Visayas - Miagao Campus, Iloilo.

This page is left intentionally blank.